

PRACTICAL NURSING PROGRAM
END OF PROGRAM STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES

Client-Centered Care:

1. Provide client-centered care with cultural sensitivity and respect, focusing on the individual needs of the client.

QSEN: Provide patient-centered care with sensitivity and respect for the diversity of human experience.

Teamwork and Collaboration:

2. Demonstrate effective communication and collaboration with the healthcare team, client, and family.

QSEN: Function competently within own scope of practice as a member of the health care team.

QSEN: Discuss effective strategies for communicating and resolving conflict.

Evidence-Based Practice:

3. Develop individualized care based on client values, clinical expertise, and current evidence.

QSEN: Base individualized care plan on patient values, clinical expertise and evidence.

Safety:

4. Demonstrate effective use of standardized practices that support quality and safety.

QSEN: Demonstrate effective use of technology and standardized practices that support safety and quality.

Informatics:

5. Utilize an electronic health record to document and plan client care.

QSEN: Document and plan patient care in an electronic health record.